Dear Anna Crast,

I quite agree with Mr. Leadbeater in his advice to you to avoid the "school of Papes." The Université you speak of I know nothing about, & if it be managed by Papes I think you would do well to avoid it. But you must judge for yourself. You cannot work under Papes or along his lines & also enter the E.S.

I am sorry that I cannot advise you as to publishing a Finnish work, knowing, as I do, nothing of Finland & its conditions. You should take the advice of some one in Finland who knows the publishing trade.

If you want a University diploma, why not go to a recognised University & study? This would give you time to think over matters, & settle more definitely your opinions. At present you are inclined to run wildly after anything that seems to promise knowledge. Until you are steadier in your mind you ought not to take any serious decision which will affect your life.

With best wishes,
sincerely yours,
Annie Besant
